

RIS Swiss Section – Deutschsprachige Schule Bangkok is a recognized Swiss and German School abroad with 300 students from over 20 different countries and 45 teachers. The teaching is based on our school's own curriculum, which is based on the curricula from Lucerne and Thuringia. We offer the whole spectrum of education from pre-kindergarten up to the bilingual Swiss Matura (German/English). In Primary School, an English profile is also led from Kindergarten to Gr. 6. Our Secondary School from Grade 7 onwards has a strong emphasis on the German language and multilingualism.

We are looking for a

Primary Teacher (Native English Speaker for Kindergarten – Grade 4)

We expect the candidate to:

- show very good pedagogical and didactic skills
- enjoy working with Kindergarten/Primary students in age-mixed groups
- be an excellent, flexible performer and a highly motivated team-player
- enjoy constructive cooperation with parents
- show commitment to school development and have good IT skills
- be a native speaker with at least a Bachelor's degree in Primary Education
- have professional experience in Primary of at least two years

We offer an exciting working environment in an international, motivated multilingual team with a competitive salary.

Please visit our website www.ris-swiss-section.org for more information and send your application with a cover letter, CV with photo, diplomas, work certificates and references to the addresses applications@ris-swiss-section.org. For any questions, please contact Johanna Vänskä, Head of Primary School, at j.vaenskae@ris-swiss-section.org.

We are looking forward to your application!

